

www.thepowerofgirlhood.org

Community Outreach Intern

We are currently looking for youth advocate interns for our online program which takes place beginning DATE. Internship will be compensated in credit or community service hours.

Responsibilities are required, not limited to the following online activities:

- Facilitate weekly one-on-one mentoring sessions with students during in-school program
- Facilitate weekly group mentoring sessions during in-school program
- Assist in classroom support during in-school program
- Maintain constant communication with teachers of students
- Provide stakeholders with updates of student's academic progress
- Create and implement Individual Achievement Plan for each student on caseload
- Weekly documentation of student social, emotional and academic progress
- Chaperone students on trips when necessary

Qualifications:

- College or community college student preferred, will consider interested high school student with references
- Computer literacy required
- Experience working with youth or peer programs preferred
- Must provide references and willing to go through background check
- Must have excellent organizational, verbal and written communication skills
-

To apply please email: thepoweofgirlhood@gmail.com with your name, school, qualifications, expressed interest.

www.thepowerofgirlhood.org

The Power of Girlhood, an interactive empowerment and leadership program for young women ages 8-18, is seeking a Social Media Intern. The Intern will be a creative, dynamic thinker who can draw young women, their mentors, and community leaders to lifelong confidence and skill.

Position: Social Media Intern

Responsibilities:

- Create timely blogs, contribute to Girlhood Facebook page and other relevant social media topics and posts, create FaceTime video and content for Girlhood website.
- Promote Girlhood, its mission, and events on all social media
- Boost and monitor social media content and Internet presence through knowledge and use of search engine and keyword optimization
- Work with Executive Director and Advisory Board, mentors, alumni, and Community Development Intern as needed to draw participants, mentors, funders and volunteers.

Requirements

Students applying for the Intern position should be Marketing, Business or Communications majors with 2-3 years of experience on the Web and with social media, as well as a solid understanding of youth markets. Bilingual /multilingual a plus.

To apply please email: thepoweofgirlhood@gmail.com with your name, school, qualifications, expressed interest.